1. What were the main goals of the Progressive Movement?

Answer Summary:

The Progressive Movement aimed to address the problems caused by industrialization, urbanization, and political corruption. Its main goals included promoting social justice, economic reform, political democracy, and efficiency in government operations. Progressives sought to eliminate corruption, regulate big business, improve working conditions, expand democracy through reforms like the direct election of senators, and promote social welfare.

Historical Context and Significance:

The movement arose as a response to the excesses of Gilded Age capitalism, emphasizing the need for government to serve as a regulator and protector of the public interest. Key figures like Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson championed reforms such as antitrust legislation, the Pure Food and Drug Act, and the Federal Reserve System.

2. How did President Theodore Roosevelt's policies exemplify Progressive ideals?

Answer Summary:

Roosevelt's policies, notably his "Square Deal," reflected Progressive ideals by promoting fair treatment for consumers, workers, and corporations. He used the Sherman Antitrust Act to break up monopolies, advocated for conservation of natural resources, and pushed for reforms to curb corporate abuses.

Historical Context and Significance:

Roosevelt's approach was characterized by a "trust-busting" stance that distinguished him from earlier presidents. His conservation efforts laid the groundwork for modern environmental policy, and his regulatory initiatives signified a shift toward active government intervention.

3. What legislative achievements were enacted during Wilson's presidency that reflected Progressive principles?

Answer Summary:

Wilson's administration passed key legislation such as the Federal Reserve Act, the Clayton Antitrust Act, the Federal Trade Commission Act, and the Adamson Act. These measures aimed to stabilize the economy, regulate trusts, and improve working conditions.

WWI led to increased government intervention in the economy through agencies like the War Industries Board. The League of Nations was proposed but ultimately rejected by Congress. The period marked a reluctant move towards global leadership, setting the stage for future foreign policy.
