The origins of the TLC date back to the early 1970s, during a period of significant expansion and regulation in NYC's taxi industry. Originally established as the Taxi and Limousine Commission in 1971, it aimed to formalize licensing procedures, enforce safety standards, and regulate fare structures amid a rapidly growing and heterogeneous transportation landscape.

Over the decades, the TLC has undergone numerous transformations, aligning itself with technological advancements and changing consumer expectations. The 2000s marked a pivotal shift, with the rise of ride-hailing apps like Uber and Lyft, prompting the TLC to adapt its regulatory scope and policies to incorporate new transportation modalities.

Today, the TLC operates as an independent city agency, with a mission to ensure safe, accessible, and reliable transportation options for all New Yorkers.

Core Responsibilities of the TLC

The NYC Taxi and Limousine Commission is entrusted with a broad array of duties, which can be grouped into several core areas:

- Licensing and Certification

- Driver Licensing: The TLC issues driver licenses for taxi, limousine, black car, and ride-hail drivers. This process involves background checks, knowledge tests (for taxi drivers), and medical examinations.
