The Origins of Scottish Surnames

Understanding the origins of Scottish surnames requires delving into the country's complex history. Scotland's surnames can generally be categorized into several broad types based on their roots: patronymic, locative, occupational, descriptive, and clan-based names.

Some surnames originated from nicknames, physical characteristics, or personal traits.

- Black: Possibly referring to someone with dark hair or complexion.
- White: For someone with fair hair or complexion.
